PROFESSIONAL PROFILE:

Deb is responsible for directing all internal and external marketing efforts, financial management, resident relations and facilities management for our residential properties.

As Community Director, Deb works closely with her staff to ensure customer satisfaction on every level – well maintained apartment homes and grounds, maintenance requests handled promptly, and friendly service.

Deb joined R&R Realty Group in March of 2004 and brings with her over 13 years of residential property and homeowners association management experience.

“We take great pride at Winwood and Country Club Village in making sure our residents’ needs are met. We understand that this is their home. We take the time to know each resident, which helps us provide the highest quality service to them to make their time with us enjoyable and hassle free”.
